MEETING YOUR NEEDS : WHAT TO EXPECT FROM SOUTH TYNESIDE COLLEGE

South Tyneside College is friendly and supportive. We welcome students from over 30 countries worldwide each year. Every student is different and we make sure each one gets the individual attention they need to succeed.

- Tutorial support is central to your study. Your course tutor will support and advise you during your time at South Tyneside College. They will provide helpful, constructive feedback on your progress and help you with any problems you may experience.
- Teaching staff are experienced and professional. Most have worked in the Merchant Navy so they know the pressures which face those who work in the industry. They will help and support you during your studies.
- Our Marine Learning Centre (MLC) provides the resources you'll need to support your study, all under one roof. It includes modern computers with internet access, reference materials and resources, and staff who are happy to provide individual help and support.
- Our on site accommodation provides comfortable bedrooms. It is just a minute's walk away from our classrooms, making it very convenient. It has a laundry, TV and games rooms and full catering facilities. It can also provide halal food. If preferred, our Accommodation Officer can also arrange local accommodation in rented lodgings locally approved By STC.

FROM THE DESK OF CAPT. GARY HINDMARCH

The Management and staff at South Tyneside College are proud to be associated with B. P. Marine Academy. We jointly can provide a training experience that will prepare you not only for your initial voyages at sea, but provide a deep understanding of the practical knowledge and theory you will need to become an effective ship's officer.

This training will prepare you for your career in the maritime sector, and ensures you will reach your maximum potential.

We look forward to welcoming you to our joint programme, and our campus in South Shields, England, where you can add your name to the long and established history of our institution.

We wish you good fortune in your quest for knowledge in the maritime industry.

From

Capt. Gary Hindmarch

Head of Marine College

WELCOME TO WORLD-CLASS EDUCATION

South Tyneside College and BP Marine Academy are pleased to be working together to offer outstanding opportunities for maritime training. Both offer the highest level of quality possible and both are certified to conform to ISO Standards. By bringing together state-of-the-art resources and experienced, professional staff, we can provide the finest training possible for a marine career.

ABOUT SOUTH TYNESIDE COLLEGE

- 1 Established in 1861 as a Marine School, we have changed dramatically over the years to meet the evolving needs of both the local community and the marine industry.
- 2 The Marine School of South Shields, 1861-1950
- 3 The South Shields Marine and Technical College, 1951-1984
- 4 Hebburn Technical College, 1955-1984
- 5 South Tyneside College, 1984- till date.

South Tyneside College can be found at South Shields, a pretty seaside resort in the North East of England. It is close to the lively city of Newcastle upon Tyne, as well as the beautiful countryside of Northumbria and Scotland. Newcastle International Airport is on the doorstep and South Shields is linked to the major UK rail and road networks.

South Tyneside College was established over 150 years ago. It is government-sponsored and has a worldwide reputation for its high quality marine training.

Its specialist teaching facilities are amongst the best in the world for marine and nautical training.

South Tyneside College is the only college in the UK to gain National Nautical Centre of Excellence status from the UK Government, in recognition of the excellent quality of its marine and nautical training.
